Members Present:	Mayor	C. Morgan
	D. Mayor	T. Squires
	Councillors:	T. Hopkins
		L. Andrews
	TC/M	S. Durdle-Walsh
Absent:	Councillors:	R. Tizzard
		R. Burt

Meeting called to order by Mayor C. Morgan at 7:00 p.m.

Mayor Morgan welcomed Mr. Wayne Button to our meeting and gave him the opportunity to address council. Mr. Button spoke about the old Skirwink walking/hiking trail, the Monument Trail and referenced the Old Perlican-Bay-de-Verde Trailway. He expressed interest in seeking a group of volunteers to upgrade the Skirwink trail and eventually the Monument trail and possibly link all trails together. Mr. Button also spoke about volunteering to pick up garbage on a section of the town's road on a regular basis and would encourage other residents to do likewise.

QUESTION & ANSWER

Councillor Andrews – Is it possible to get a red flashing sign for the Gasland and Post office stop sign?

- TC/M is to check with the Department of Highways.

What can we do about cars blocking the road on Bullocks Ave?

- We have spoken with police and they have advised us to get no parking signs and put them up and if it continues then call them back.

What is going on with the quarry?

- Check with the admin assistant to see what was said.

Councillor Hopkins – Can we use the dredged material for the project at the trial Wayne Button was looking into?

- No, the sand is too fine.
