TC/M Report:

- The summer recreation program has started and is doing well.

- The new truck for the fire department is here.

- The 2024 audit is almost complete.

- The water in the ponds has started to recede already and we are asking residents to conserve.

- We have set the date for the afternoon tea for Freda and Fred for June 25, form 2-4.

- The exhaust fell off the dump truck but the boys can put it on themselves with a couple of clamps.

- There was a site visit for the sewer project on the 5th.

- We provided loot bags for the grade six class which went over very well.

- Our bulk garbage and community clean-up went over really well, there was a great deal of garbage.

- The boardwalk has been fixed where it was lifted and is now walkable again.

- The boys have started at the dog park.

- The forms for telmatik are now on the website and we are starting to get them come in.

- Quin Sea is on Cook's Cove water supply, Quinlans are on Bell Pond but they use mostly salt water this time of year.
